

STATE OF KANSAS

PROCLAMATION
BY THE GOVERNOR

TO THE PEOPLE OF KANSAS, GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, this weekend marks the first time the University of Kansas and the Kansas State University football programs have both been ranked at the same time in the Associated Press Top 25 College Football Poll since the 2007 season; and

WHEREAS, both the Jayhawks and Wildcats are 2-0 in conference play; and WHEREAS, the Jayhawks are 5-0, and the Wildcats are 4-1 going into this weekend's game; and

WHEREAS, 2022 marks the 132nd and 126th season for the University of Kansas and Kansas State University football programs, respectively; and

WHEREAS, alliances to either university facilitate passionate fandom and an intrastate rivalry, encouraging a love of football and the Great State of Kansas; and

WHEREAS, fans from around the world will be watching and listening to every second of play as the Jayhawks take on the TCU Horned Frogs at David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium and the Wildcats are on the road against the Iowa State Cyclones; and

WHEREAS, the only way to continue advancing the season is for the KU Jayhawks and the K-State Wildcats to give it their all - driving the pigskin down the field every quarter and leaving the gridiron victorious;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Laura Kelly, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF KANSAS, do hereby proclaim October 7-8, 2022, as in the state of Kansas and I urge all citizens to join in this observation.

DONE: At the Capitol in Topeka under the Great Seal of the State this 7th day of October, A.D. 2022
